Marian Year Prayer

Enraptured by the splendor of your heavenly beauty, and impelled by the anxieties of the world, we cast ourselves into your arms, O Immaculate Mother of Jesus and our Mother, Mary, confident of finding in your most loving heart appeasement of our ardent desires, and a safe harbor from the tempests which beset us on every side.

Though degraded by our faults and overwhelmed by infinite misery, we admire and praise the peerless richness of sublime gifts with which God has filled you, above every other mere creature, from the first moment of your Conception until the day on which, after your Assumption into heaven, He crowned you Queen of the Universe.

O crystal Fountain of faith, bathe our minds with the eternal truths! O fragrant Lily of all holiness, captivate our hearts with your heavenly perfume! O Conqueress of evil and death, inspire in us a deep horror of sin which makes the soul detestable to God and a slave of hell!

O well-beloved of God, hear the ardent cry which rises up from every heart in this year dedicated to you. Bend tenderly over our aching wounds. Convert the wicked, dry the tears of the afflicted and oppressed, comfort the poor and humble, quench hatreds, sweeten harshness, safeguard the flower of purity in youth, protect the holy Church, make all men feel the attraction of Christian goodness. In your name, resounding harmoniously in heaven, may they recognize that they are brothers, and that the nations are members of one family, upon which may there shine forth the sun of a universal and sincere peace.

Receive, O Most Sweet Mother, our humble supplications, and above all obtain for us that, one day, happy with you, we may repeat before your throne that hymn which today is sung on earth around your altar:

You are all beautiful, O Mary! You are the glory, you are the joy, you are the honor of our people! Amen.

Dedication

Thou Art All Beautiful, O Mary!

Bishop of Toledo

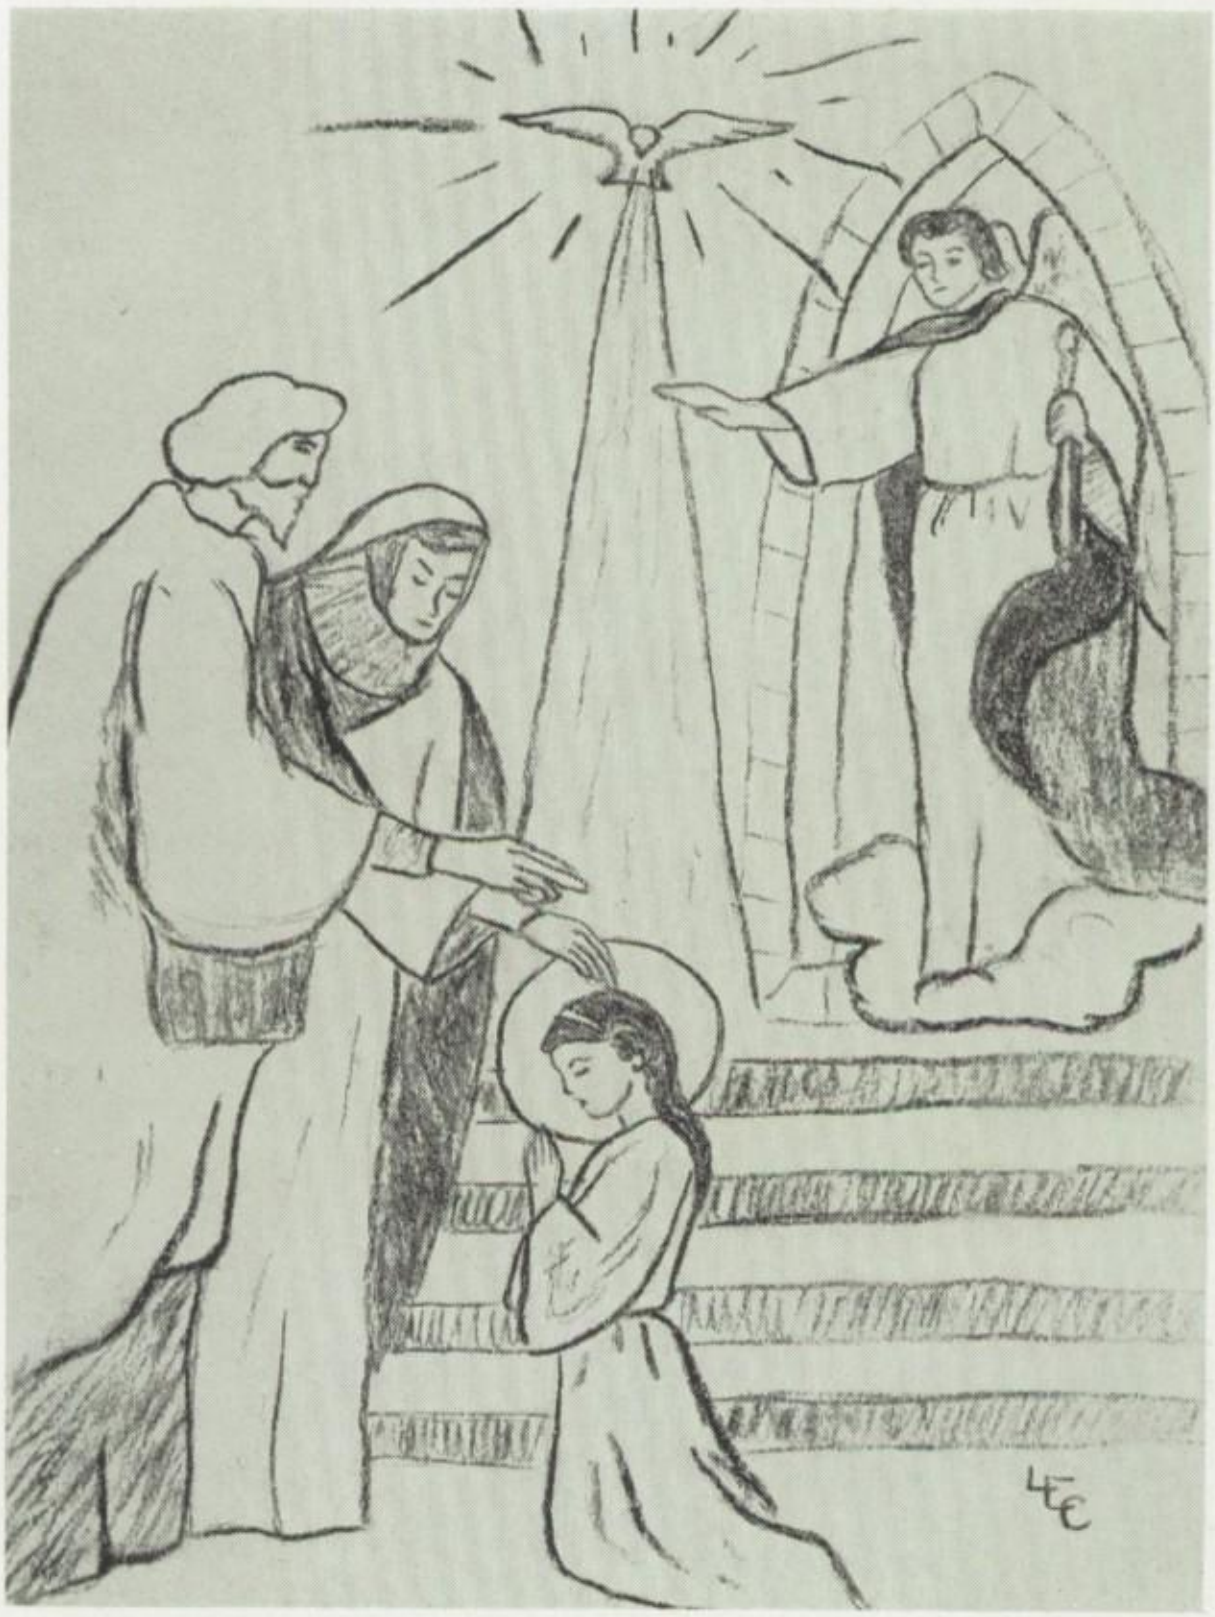
His Excellency
MOST REVEREND GEORGE J. REHRING, D. D.

Most Reverend George J. Rehring, bishop ot the Toledo diocese, is our spiritual leader. His devotion to his tasks is exemplified in his letters to the diocese. Love of Mary, especially during the Marian Year, is demonstrated by special feast days, special prayers, and special blessings which he recommends. He urges us not to neglect our opportunities to improve our spiritual life. He published lists of all of the indulgences which could be gained during the Marian Year.

To the sick he sent a special letter urging them to unite their suffering with those of Mary. All of us were urged to spend a special day of prayer for those who, because of persecution, were unable to give public devotion to Mary.

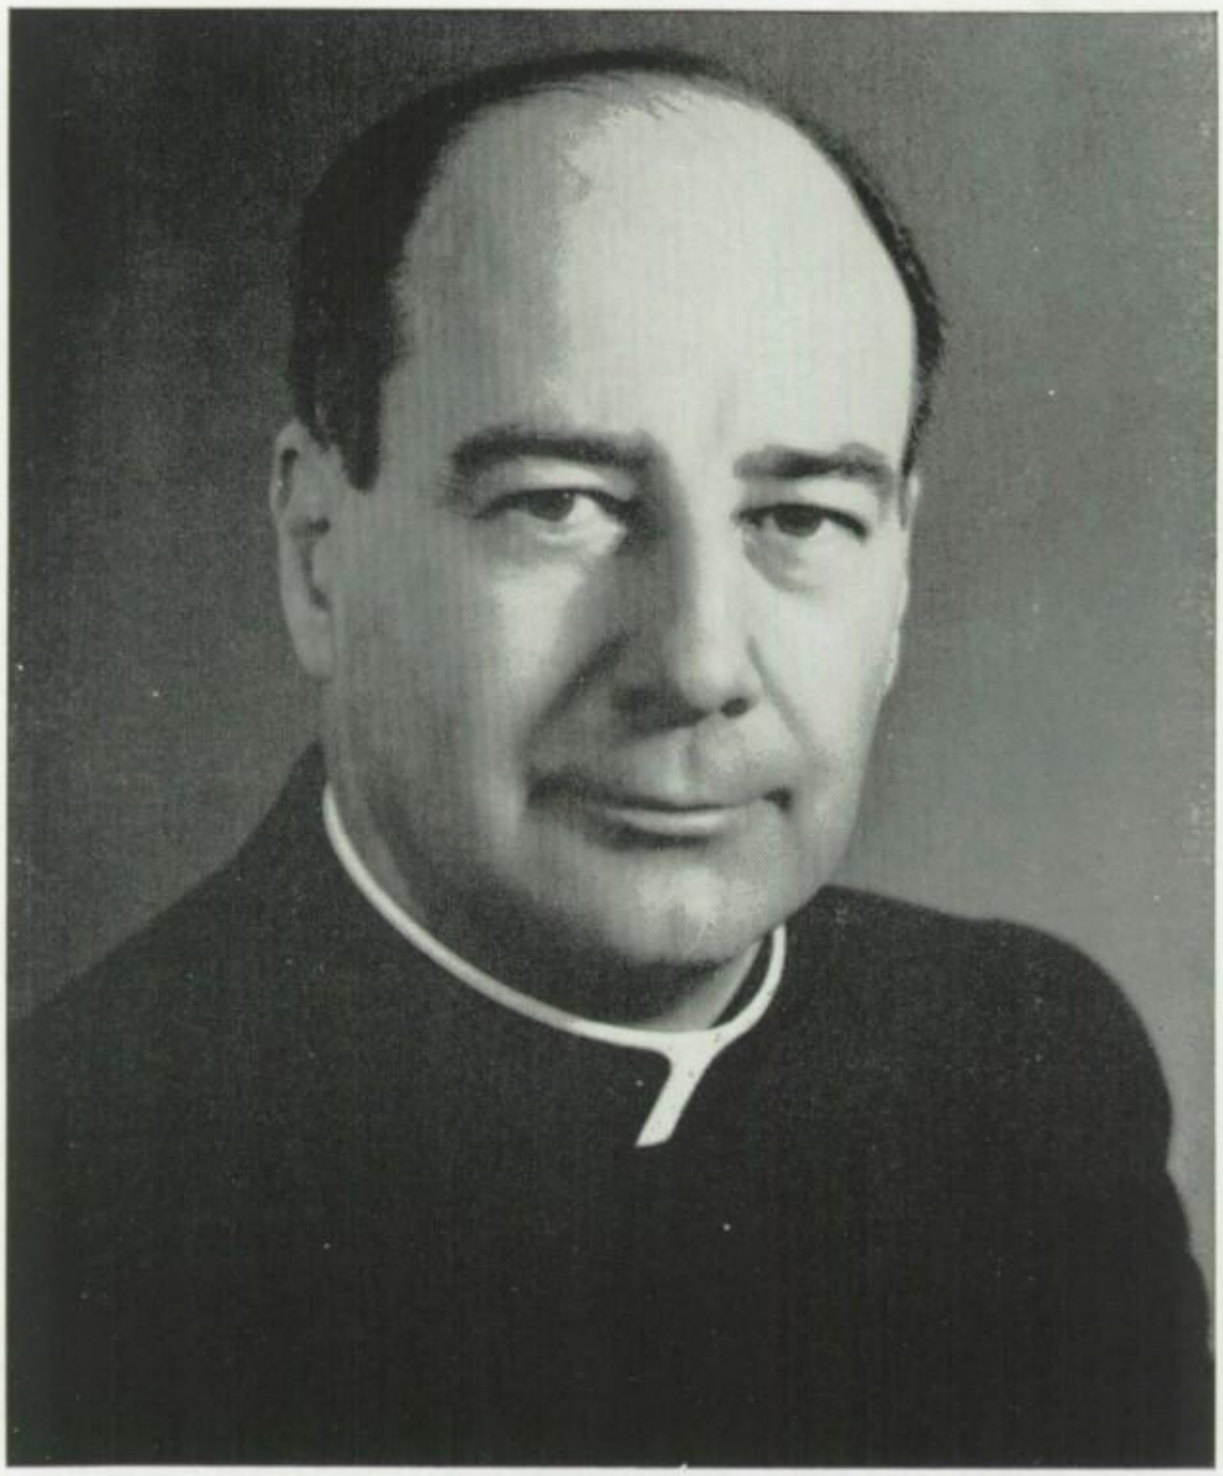
We sincerely hope and pray that the devotion to Mary, being fostered during the Marian Year, will continue under the inspiring leadership of Bishop Rehring.

Faculty



O Virgin Mother of my God,
Give me the grace to say,
"I give myself to You, my Lord"
As you said on your Presentation Day.

Principal



REV. JOSEPH D. SHENK, M. A., B. S. E.

During the last four years, Father Shenk, our principal, has spent the greater part of his time providing for the spiritual and educational needs of the Calvert students.

Spiritually, Father Shenk has done all in his power to guide the students in the right path—the path of true Christian living.

Temporally, Father has considered every detail of our new school so that all would be in excellent condition when the new building opened; he spent many hours with the regular workers and thus gave this year's graduating class a few weeks in the new Calvert.

We realize that teaching, supervising the construction of the new Calvert, and taking a personal interest in every student at Calvert is a real job, but Father Shenk has gladly given his time and effort in making our school days really worth-while.

We wish to thank Father Shenk for truly being a "Father" to us.

REV. EDWARD C. DUNN, M. A.

Assistant Principal

Father Dunn, humorous and sincere, goes about his work very quietly.

His personality is such that if a student needs advice on a problem, small or large, he feels free to go to Father. He knows Father is willing to go out of his way to help the students, whether they are freshmen or seniors.

Father Dunn's classes in Religion come first, but he still takes an active interest in all the extra-curricular activities. Our assistant principal finds time to take care of each individual person.

The students of Calvert are greatly indebted to our assistant principal, Father Dunn, for the aid he has given us in spiritual and temporal affairs.

Board of Fiscal Control

Calvert students owe the pastors of St. Mary's and St. Joseph's Parishes a deep debt of gratitude for the interest that they have shown towards our almost-completed Calvert.

Not only are our pastors concerned with the structure of the new building, but also they are attentive to the needs of Calvert students, especially their spiritual welfare.

Recently Monsignor Kinnane and Father Gabel revealed their personal interest in the building by participating in the inspection of it.

Continually requesting financial aid from their parishes, they have been providing the means that kept our high school operating smoothly and made the dream of a new building a reality.

We, the students of Calvert, wish to thank our pastors for their continued help and hope that their efforts in our behalf were not in vain.

Religion Honor Roll

One of the oldest traditions at Calvert is that the highest honor that can be won by any girl or boy is that of crowning Our Lady's statue at the May Crowning ceremony.

Those who have maintained a B+ average in Religion and character rating for four years are candidates for election to this honor.

During this religious ceremony, held in the Italian court,, Louis Crist and Louisa Machaels placed the wreath of roses on Our Lady's head.

The boy and girl who were next in line, Leo Depinet and Mary Alice Ball, carried the banners of the Blessed Virgin.

Eligible for election for this honor were:

Leo Depinet
Louis Crist
Mary Alice Ball
Dorothy Breitigam
Donna Ecos
Mary Jo Fate
Ann Ferrall
Aleta Grillot
Kathleen Kimmet
Marilyn Kuhn
Audrey Lavoe
Catherine Lutz.
Nancy Magers
Louisa Michaels
Virginia Ranker
Mary Jo Schlachter
Joan Sendelbach
Charlotte Van Curen
Carolyn Weddell

Scholastic Honor Roll

Averaging 90 per cent in all high school courses requires a great deal of "mental stamina" and much "stick-to-it-tiveness". It is an accomplishment of which one whose name appears on the list can well be proud.

The boy and girl who maintain the highest averages are the valedictorian and the salutatorian at the Commencement Exercises. This year they are Aleta Grillot and Louis Crist.

Those who suceeded in making the 90 per cent average for four years in all studies are:

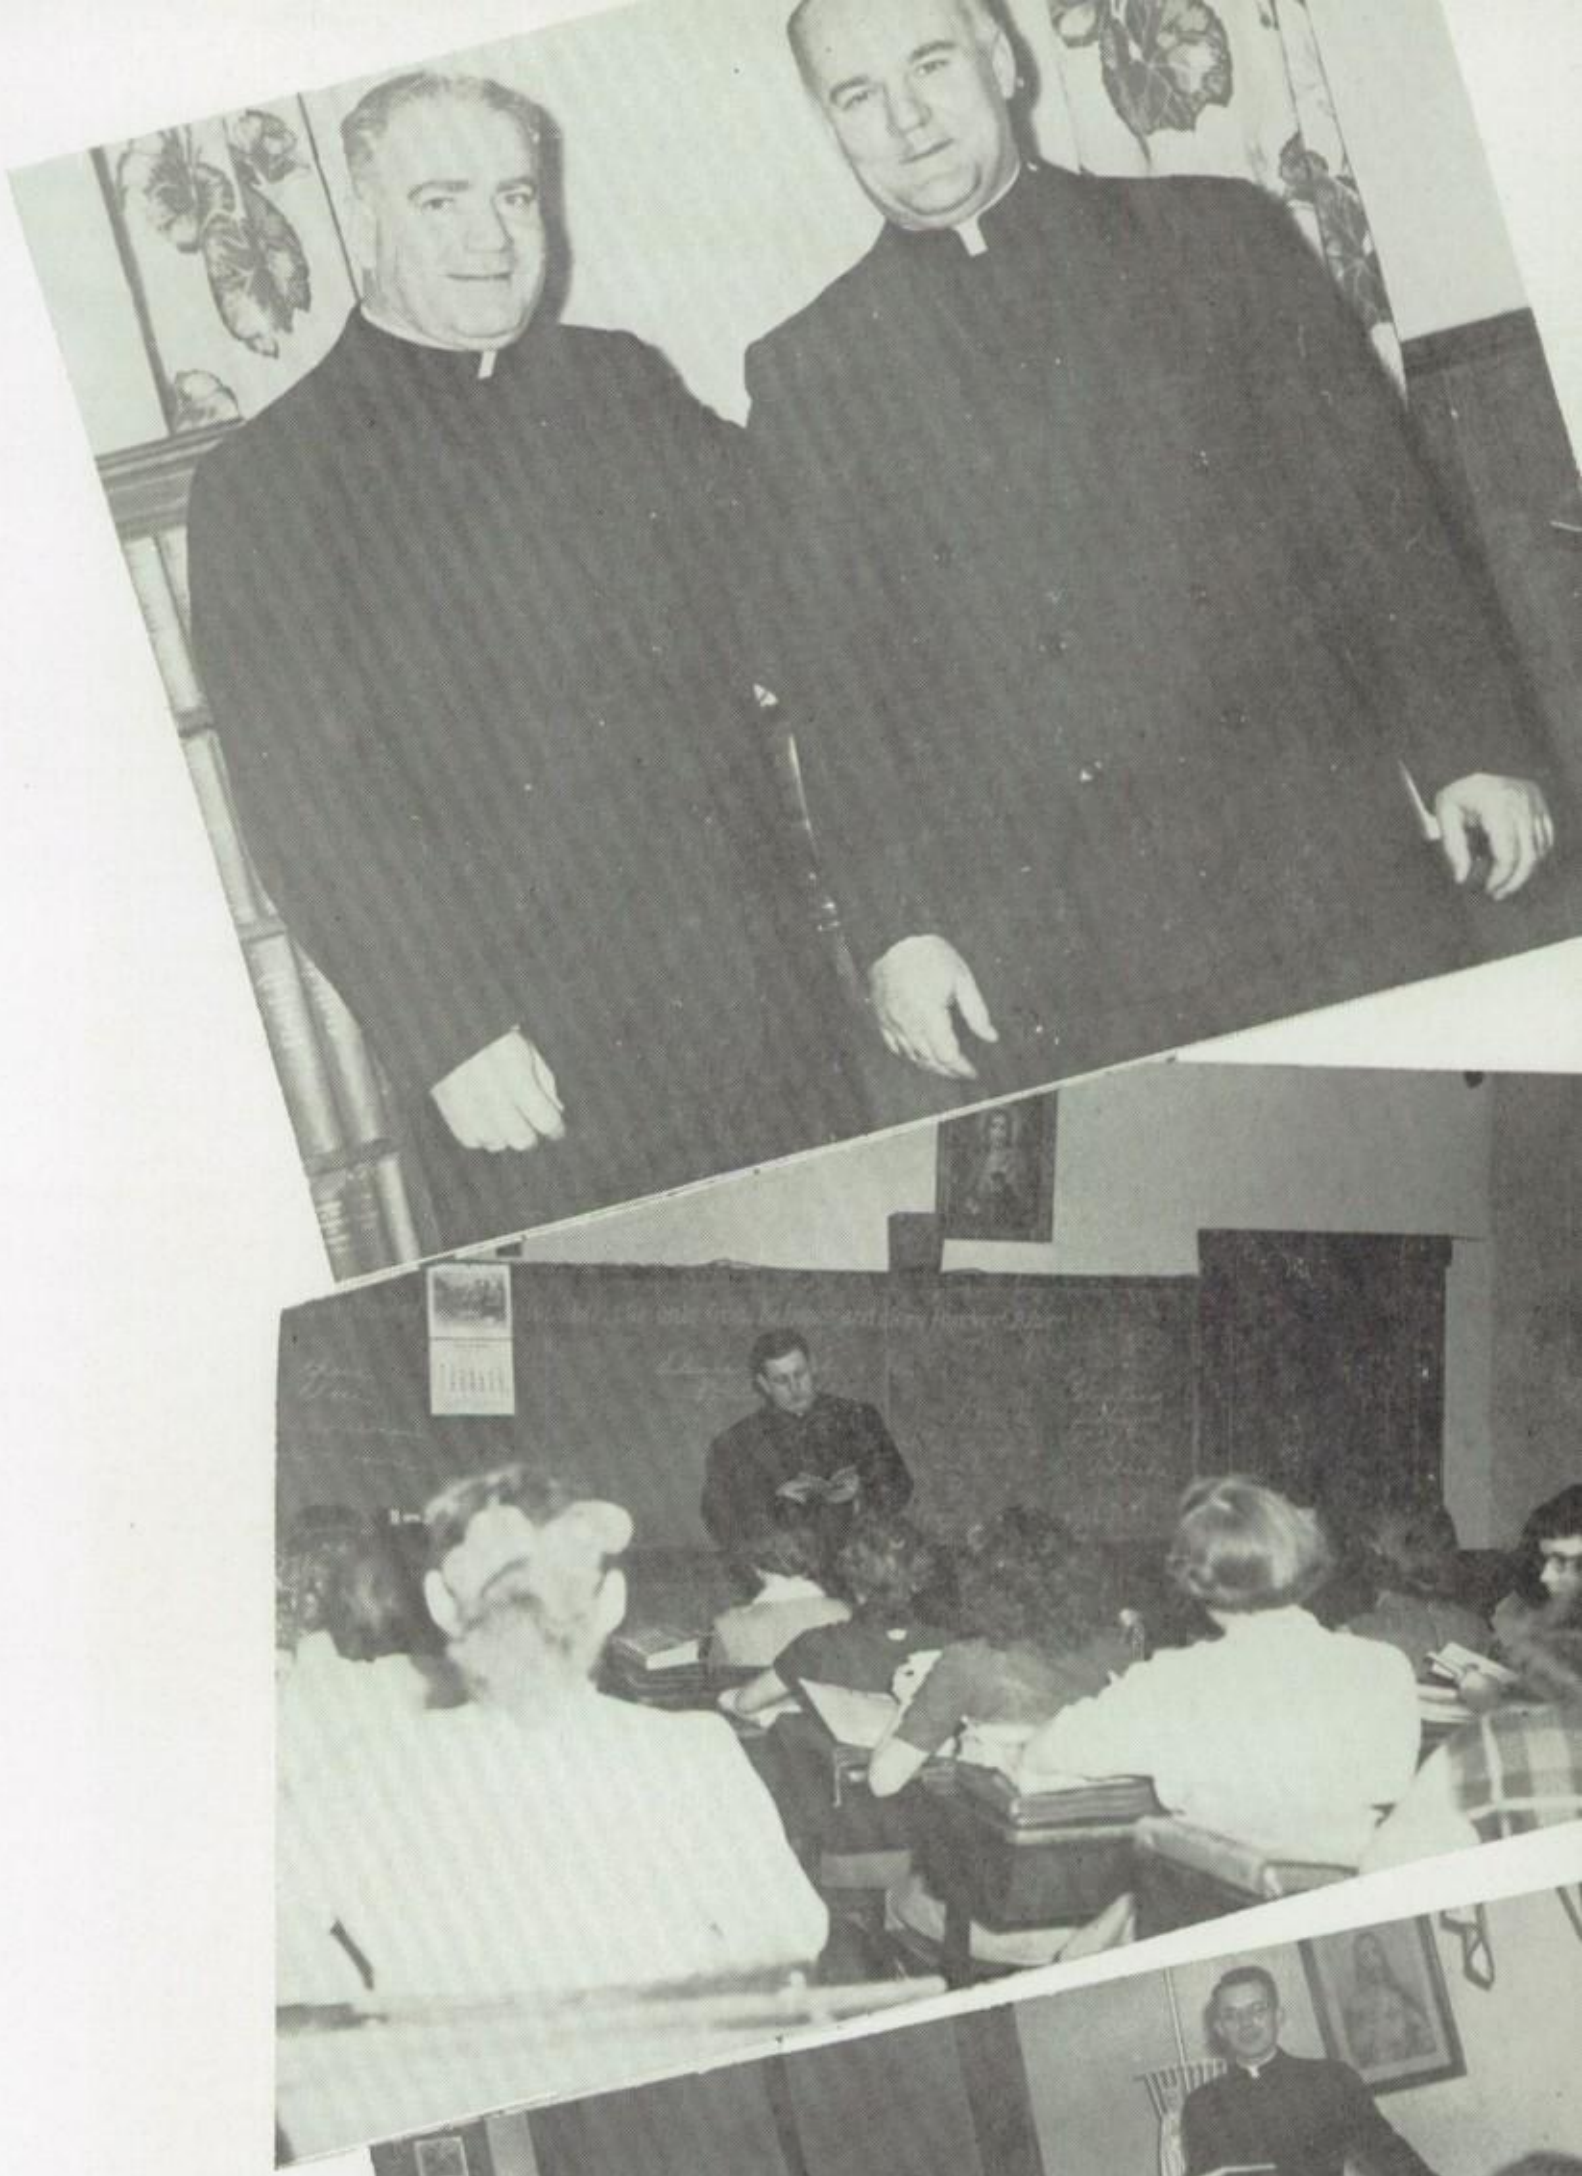
Aleat Grillot
Catherine Lutz
Mary A. Ball
Kathleen Kimmet
Audrey Lavoe
Mary Brickner
Louis Crist
Dorothy Breitigam
Charlotte Van Curen
Ann Ferrall
Carol Brubaker
Donna Ecos
Mary Jo Fate

Religion

Portraying the greatest event in history are Kathleen Kimmet and Robert Amlin as the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph. Watching over the Child Jesus are the angels - Louise Michaels, Mary Perna, and Mary Alice Ball. The shepherds are John Fingerhuth, Leo Depinet, and Benjamin Shock.

Under the guidance of Father Shenk, the senior boys learn how to put their Religion into practice in everyday life.

Illustrating his remarks with a humorous story, Father Dunn instructs the freshmen boys' Religion class.



Listening to these two dynamic retreat masters, Rev. Jospeh Kelly, O.M.I., and Rev. Arthur Tobin, O.M.I., Calvert students filled to capacity the temporary chapel in the new Calvert.

Father Lavey directs the sophomore girls in their study of the virtues of charity, justice, truth, and religion.

The work of the Holy Ghost in the individual and in the Church is the main topic which Father Reichart develops in his junior Religion classes.

Inter Nos

Holding the previous publications of the Inter Nos, Latin newspaper now in its eighteenth year, is the present staff —Mary Alice Ball, Dorothy Breitigam, Charlotte Van Curen, Catherine Lutz, Leo Depinet, and Dennis Bridinger.

Latin

Caught in the act of conquering first year Latin are these enthusiastic freshmen. Mary Ann Pacifico and Irene Bour are declining ille, illa, illud.

Spanish

Habla usted el Espanol? These first-year Spanish students—Patrick Leahy, Carolyn Kelker, Elaine Ecos, Agnes Huss, and Joseph Migliori—are taking their first step in mastering the language.

Cousulting these leather-bound reference tools, the encyclopedias, underclassmen — Lawrence Zimmer, Deanna Worley, Carol Fleck, Barbara Breitenbach and Daniel Colatruglio—prove that the melting pot of Calvert's students is the library.

Calvert Library

Seeking literature on the Marian Year, this group of sophomores--Mary Terry, Barbara Welter, Barbara Michaels, Kenneth Kuhn and Anthony Anese—find inspiring material in the Calvert library.

Chemistry

Kay Eschenbrenner and Mary Alice Ball examine posters about the part chemistry plays in industry while the artists—Aleta Grillot, Ann Ferrall, and Louisa Michaels — explain them.

Physics

Determining heat of vaporization of water seems to prove a lively experiment to these junior physicists—Philip Falter, Albert Hemminger, James Seifert, James Fullerton, Donald Flechtner, James Sauber, and Cletus Zoll.

Chemistry

Donna Ecos, Carolyn Weddell, Richard Sullivan, Kathleen Kimmet, and James Meier use a Leibig condenser to demonstrate fractional distillation.

Biology

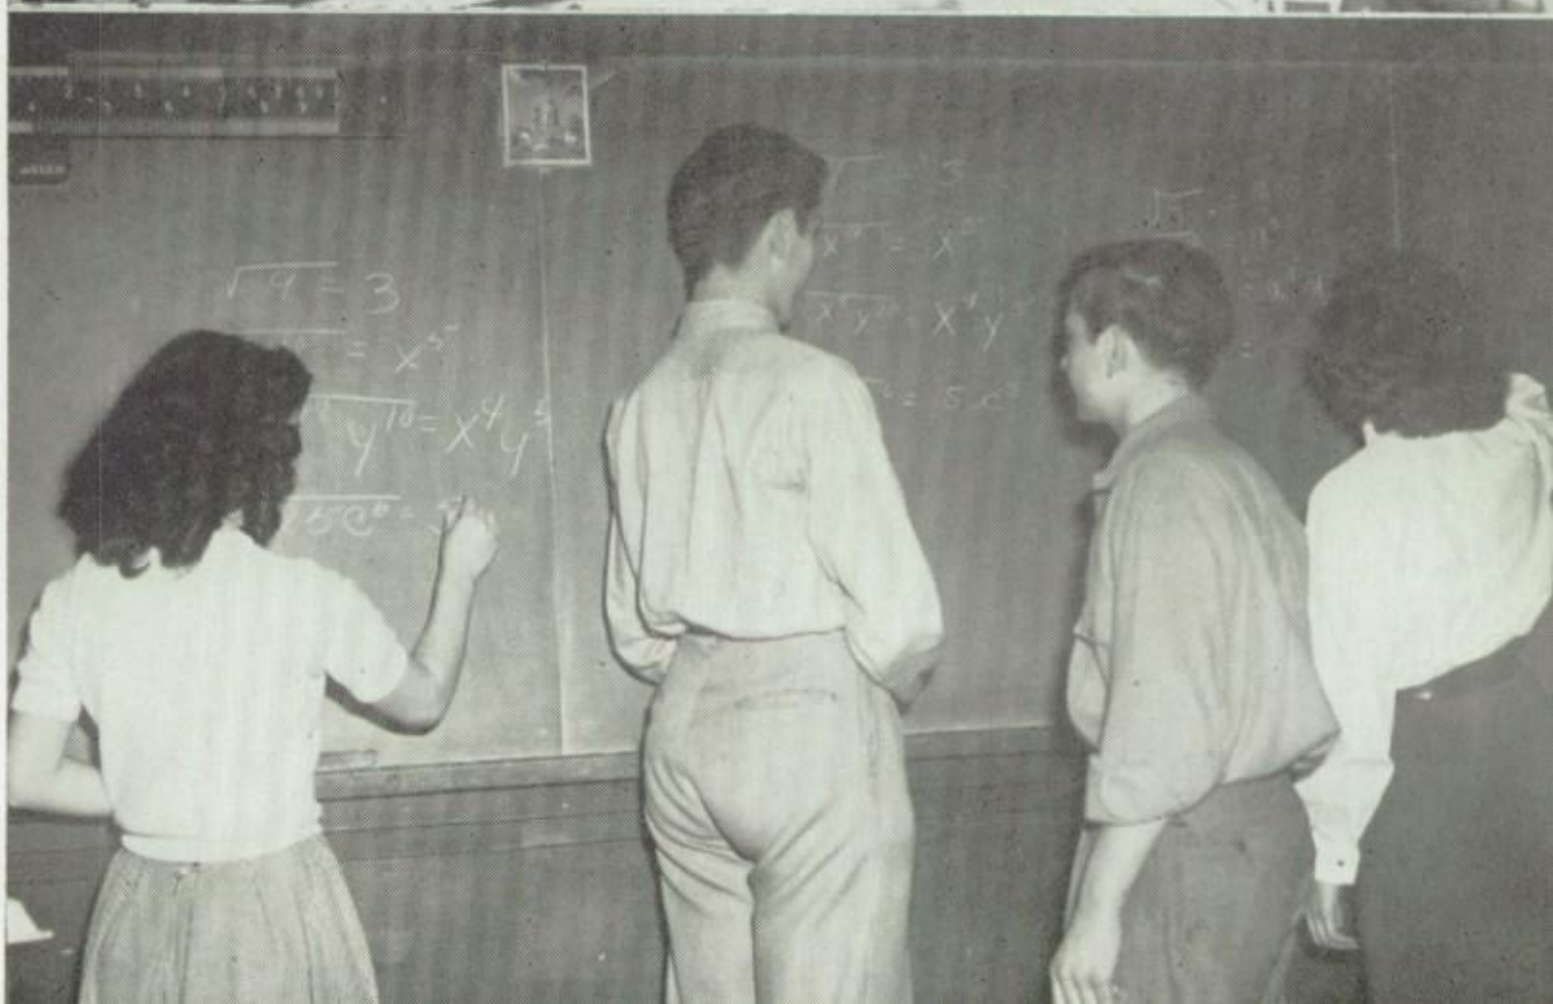
Mary Frances D'Ariano, Marilyn Boner, Mary Ferstler, Irene Magers and Ann Steinbaugh—members of Sister Maurice's biology class—examine petrified wood and rock containing fern fossils.

Geometry

Kathleen Brain points to the well-known theorem—the exterior angle is equal to the sum of the two opposite interior angles.

Algebra

Extracting square roots presents no problem to these freshmen algebra students—Mary Omlor, Eugene Koby, Daniel Leahy, and Nancy Shultz.



Mechanical Drawing

Working diligently on their latest project are James Hohman, Robert Kelbley, David Omlor, and Joseph Scherger, in one of the Mechanical Drawing classes.

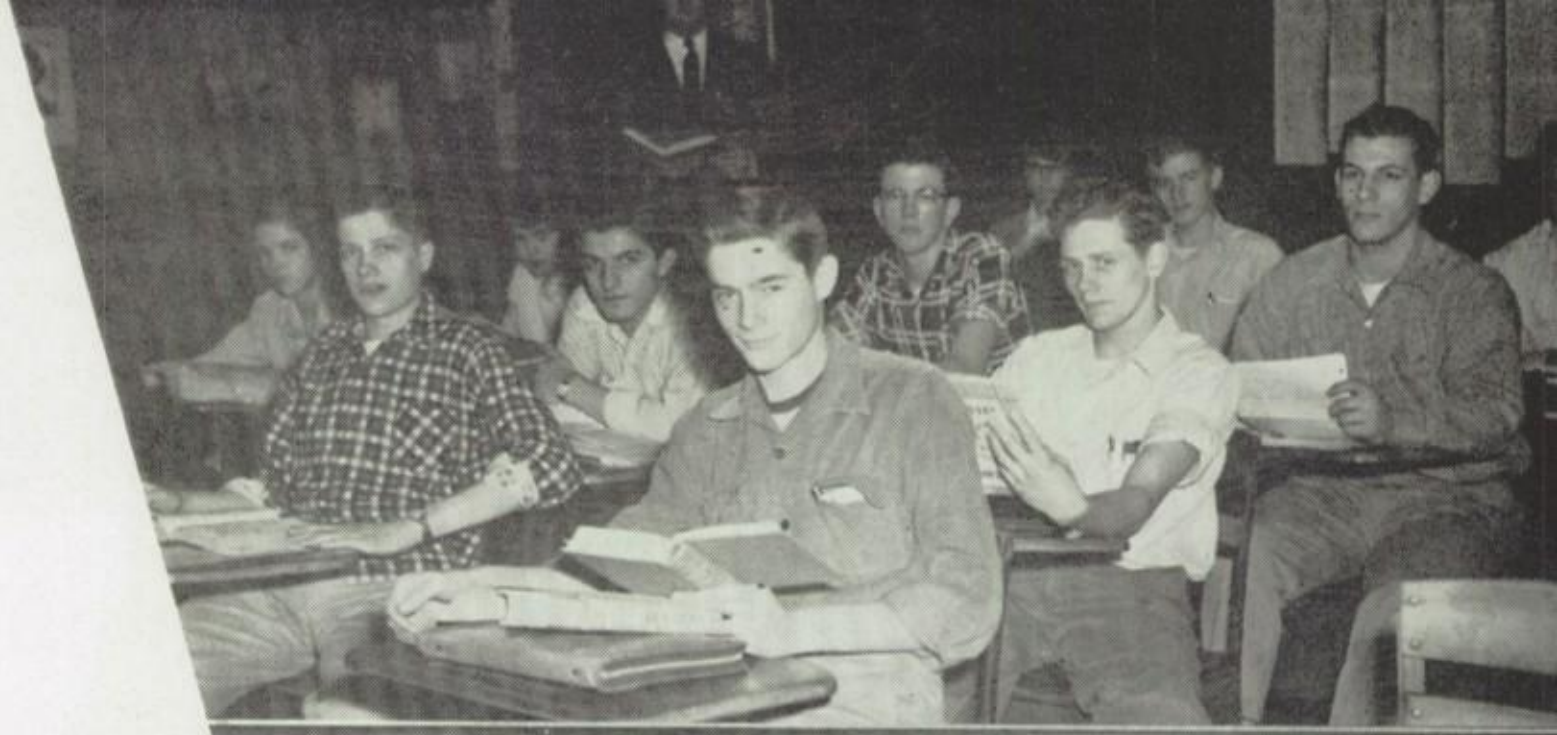
Art

Putting their artistic talents to work in the production of colorful posters are Benjamin Schock, Charles Schauder, Ronald Krupp, Jerome Kinn, and Thomas Shook.

Stage settings are the main attractions of these ambitious artists - Jeanene Johnson, Marilyn Mathias, James Wise, Richard Anderson, and David Fisher.

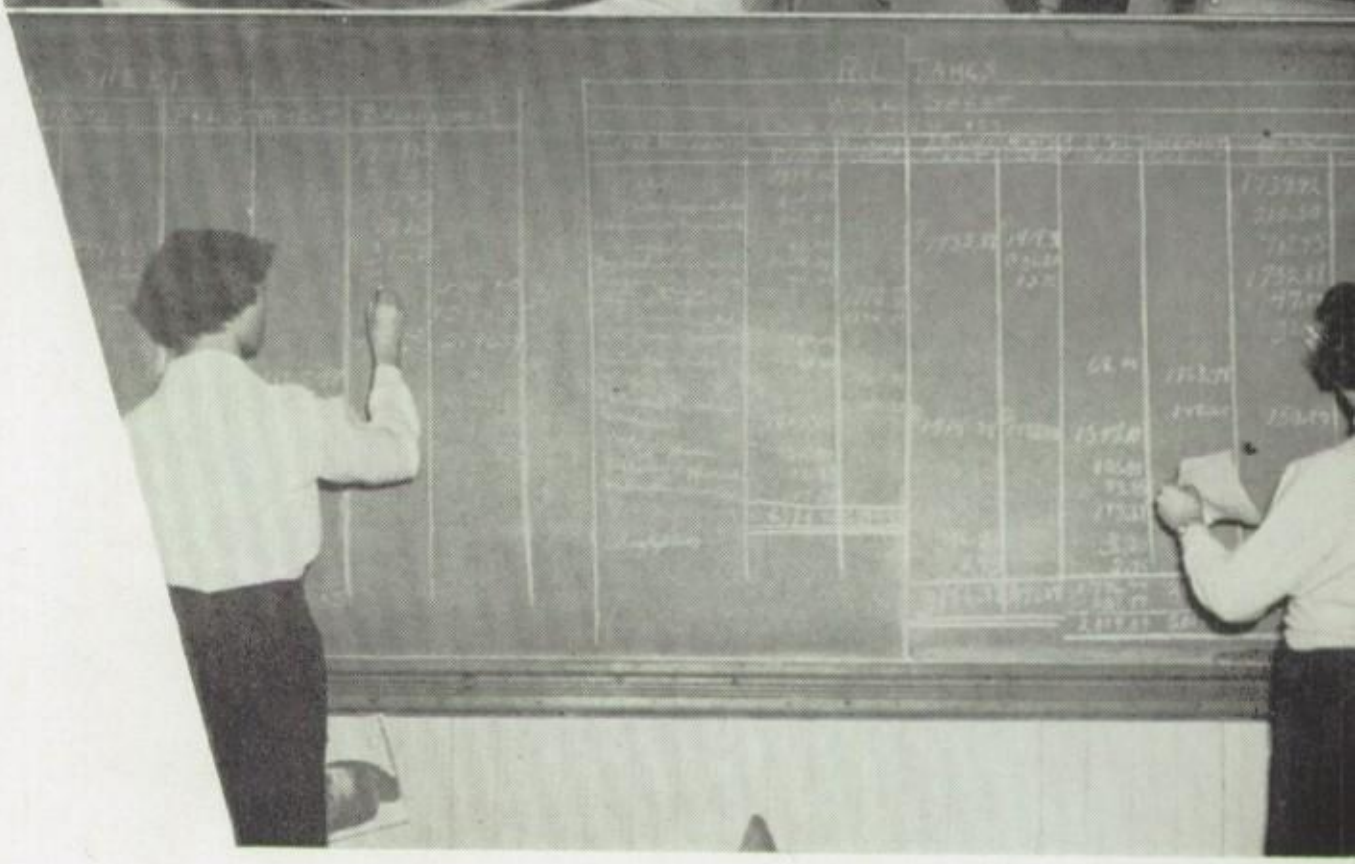
General Business

Checks, interest, and balances catch the attention of the General Business class, conducted by Mr. Diringer.



Bookkeeping

Hoping that their "net profit" is correct on the work sheet are Madeline Fleck and Josephine Buccione of the senior bookkeeping class.



Commerce

Typing

Trying to raise their speed-thermometers, these seniors with nimble fingers, are busily tapping away at the keyboard.

History

American History

Doris Company, the North, attempts to prevent Margaret Funkhouser, the South, from completely dividing the land.

Modern History

David Fisher prepares to execute Louis Robenalt as they depict the martyrdom of St. Thomas More.

Ancient History

Either flat maps or the globe direct attention to ancient Greece. Donald Blust points to the map and Gary Croy, to the globe. Looking on are Hermina Leahy and Donna Mooney.

Future home makers—Jeannine Company, Mary Ferstler, Mary Frances D'Ariano, Margaret Kirian, and Imelda Wise enjoy baking a cake.

Home Economics

Antonetta Perna, Carol Fleck, Joanna Longo, Deanna Werling, and Barbara Breitenbach diligently follow the recipe to produce mouth-watering results in their pressure cooker pan.

Calvertana

From the moment we finish our freshmen year to the day we take a final lingering glance at Calvert's walls, the yearbook always takes a special place in our hearts.

Naturally, a great deal of hard work goes into this high school album. The seniors have sacrificed precious time for the writing of sports and features and in the mounting of the pictures.

Two students who have proved themselves more than worthy of the co-editorship are Aleta Grillot and Leo Depinet. They have had a difficult task directing the writing of the yearbook, but they always found the time and found it gladly.

The top team in the patron drive for the Calvertana, Ann Ferrall and Audrey Lavoe, are proudly making returns to the business managers, Mary Jo Schlachter and Ted Singleton. Ann and Audrey have solicted $95.50.

Besides keeping the records straight Ted and Mary Jo urged the seniors to do their utmost.

American Legion

Proud winners of the American Legion Essay Contest are Aleta Grillot, who won first place, and Hugo Bour, fifth place winner.

Poets

Showing an ability to compose original and inspiring poems are James Huffman, '54, and Gail Borer, '55, winners of the George K. Allison Poetry Prize, established by a group of G. I.'s in Korea.

C. Y. O.

Donna Ecos and Gail Borer wrote winning essays in the diocesan contest sponsored by the C. Y. O., entitled America's Hope-Youth with Faith. Donna placed second in the senior division while Gail copped fourth in the junior division.

Lions Club

Writers of the winning essays on U. N.-Hope of Free Nations, sponsored by the Tiffin Lions Club for Calvert and Columbian are: Carolyn Kelker, Raymond Singleton, Louis Crist, Carol Patterson, David Dow, Ann Ferrall, Charlotte Van Curen, Richard Sullivan, Aleta Grillot, James Reinman, Carolyn Boes, and Donald Flechtner.

Calvert News

Carrying on a well-established tradition of publishing an All-Catholic, student - produced paper, Charlotte Van Curen, editor, is surrounded by the associate editors—Donna Ecos, Dennis Bridinger, Kathleen Kimmet, Terry Riester, and Aleta Grillot.

The news writers hoping to make another good layout, are busily cutting, fitting, and pasting news articles.

To round out the action-packed Calvert News, feature and alumni editors keep interest alive through features, editorials, and columns.

Playing a large part in the success of the paper are the boys in charge of obtaining patrons, taking pictures of interesting school doings and mailing the copies to all the News subscribers.

Preparing the articles for the printer are the speedy typists, while the circulation staff prepare the envelopes for mailing.

Every sports activity throughout the school year is covered and written in a play-by-play fashion by the on-the spot sports writers.

Glee Club

ALTOS

Top row: Margaret Funkhouser, Mary Ellen Wangler, Donna Ecos, and Yvonne Smith.

Second row: Eugenia Welter, Aleta Grillot, and Margaret Schira,

First row: Charlotte Van Curen, Katy Lou Lutz, and Donna Steinmetz.

BASSES AND BARITONES

Top row: William Dell, Dennis Bridinger, and David Laube.

Second row: Richard Sullivan, James Meier, David Dow, and Thomas Felter.

Third row: Louis Crist, John Weisenberger, and John San Gregory.

SOPRANOS

Third row: Madeline Fleck, Marilyn Ink, Margaret Immele, Angeline Gaietto, Carolyn Boes, Barbara Welter, Nancy Fischer, Carol Dryfuse, Patricia Miletti, and Jean Haefling.

Second row: Kathleen Kimmet, Constance Kimmet, Elaine Ecos, Jeanne Welter, Mary McClellan, and Rose Ann Wagner.

First row: Josephine Patuto, Helen Buccione, Doris Smith, Marilyn Swope, and Joanna Longo.

Lively little Susie Stefanelli led the band in snappy formations between halves in the football games, in parades, and in the May Band-Glee Club Concert.

With lively precision Sylvia Omlor, Sue Stefanelli, and Claranne Nigh added zest to the band music by their dancing and twirling.

Majorettes

Calvert

Proudly displaying their saxophones, are these four capable players—Mary Carpenter, Rita Seislove, Margaret Deer, and Jacqueline Rex.

Brandishing their clarinets like a row of soldiers are Ann Ferrall, Joyce Ferrall, Barbara Leahy, Agnes Welter, Gary Croy, Richard Roy, Mary Ann Klopp, and Marilyn Kuhn.

Band

The bass section comprising Robert Reinhart and James Wise, tuba, Mary Ellen Meier, alto horn, James Vande Kerkhoff, trombone, and Geraldine Schetter, baritone, harmonize with ease in their mellow tones.

Drums set the pace of Calvert's marching band, while flutes and piccolos produce the high notes. Happily assembled here are David Molyett, Georgiana Bland, John San Gregory, Carol Dryfuse, Linda Cole, Marilyn Swope, Mary McClellan, Margaret Funkhouser, and Dorothy Breitigam.

The trumpet section is ready for inspection. Present are: Doris Smith, Nancy Vogel, Margaret Schira, Rosalie Aiello, Diane Kistler, Yvonne Smith, Ann Ley, Virginia Enoch, Naomi Arbogast, and Audrey Lavoe.

Senecas' Coaching Staff

Completing his fifth year at Calvert is Mr. Karl Zalar, head football and basketball coach. This year "Zip" gave Calvert a football and basketball team to be proud of. With 11 lettermen he shaped out a rugged football team that walked off with 8 wins and only 1 defeat, while in basketball he led his squad to a 17-3 record.

Assisting Mr. Zalar as backfield coach and reserve squad basketball coach is Mr. Joseph Kukoy, a new man on the staff.

Joe's fine personality made him liked by everyone and many of the athletes came to him for advice on how to better themselves.

As it looks, Joe has a fine coaching career ahead of him.

Mr. Steve Ecos was again at Calvert to assist Mr. Zalar in handling the chores of shaping up the line in football. And that he did, as Calvert had one of the strongest and fastest lines in a long time.

Cheerleaders

At every game it's the, "Go, Team," yell of the cheerleaders that puts vim and vigor into the spectators as well as the team.

All this year, Calvert's four cheerleaders could be heard leading yells even long after the games were over. Some victories could have been losses had it not been for their inexhaustible school spirit.

Congratulations on a job well done to Carol "Your Pep" Saylor, Gail "Beat Me Daddy" B o r e r , Katie "Action" Lutz and Helen "Hey, Go" Buccione.

First Row: Daniel Fullerton, William Zoll, Gerald Hoerig, John Leahy, Kenneth Rumschlag, George Graham, Eugene Stefanelli, Michael Leahy, Salvatore Paradiso, John Gatton, Lawrence Shelt.

1953 Grid Season

Posting eight wins to one loss, the Calvert Seneca football squad added a new luster to the record books.

Besides the large percentage of wins, the gridders entered some of the most impressive scores in the school's history.

After failing to break the jinx of the preview game, the Senecas picked themselves up by scalping Galion 27-0.

The only black mark on the record was the 14-0 loss to Toledo Clay, which now has a win streak of 30 games.

After this defeat, the Senecas settled down for the rest of the season with wins over Sandusky St. Mary's 33-6, Port Clinton 40-7, Fostoria St. Wendelin's 39-6, Fremont St. Joe's 14-0, Lima St. Rose 14-0, Kenton 23-0, and, as a final touch, a city-championship win over Tiffin Columbian 53-6.

Only through teamwork could such achievements as these be made. Even though Denny Bridinger, the over 200 pound fullback, was chcsen by the players the most valuable player, the whole team worked like a well-made machine. Each man was extremely valuable as is evident by the election of all the seniors as co-captains.

The senior co-captains are Jim Meier, Dave Dow, Bill Rohrbach, Dick Sullivan, Bobby Amlin, Dick Theis, Bill Dell, Louie Crist, Bud Phillips, Tom Felter, Dave Omlor, Jim Rochester, and Denny Bridinger.

Adding depth to the squad were the underclassmen who proved to be an asset to the team. Although there were only two underclassmen, Bob Leahy and Tom Zahn, on the starting 11, all of them received valuable experience. Despite the loss of 14 lettermen, the team next year should be hard to beat.

Underclass lettermen include Butch Distel, Jim Masella, Jim Fullerton, Joe Migliori, Phil Falter, Bob Leahy, Tom Zahn, Joe Scherger, and John Lutz, all juniors.

The team had another valuable man who never got into the game, except in spirit, or never got his name in the paper. This man is manager Terry Riester. Always on the spot whenever he was needed, Terry proved a real asset to the team.

In front are Coaches Mr. Joseph Kukoy and Mr. Karl "Zip" Zalar who led the Senecas to their best season.

Basketball

Playing a high scoring, fast break type of ball, the '53-'54 Seneca cagers turned in the best season record in the history of Calvert by winning 17 and losing but 3. This year's team also was the first Calvert team ever to play in its own gymnasium; it well deserved this honor as the team won all 9 of its home court games.

The Senecas proved they had what it takes when they went to the Sandusky Tournament and knocked off kingpin Bellevue and 2nd seeded Sandusky. But it was a rough Fremont Ross who defeated the Senecas in the finals of the sectional tournament.

A well-rounded scoring punch kept the Z-Men in all the way, as Coach Zalar had five good shooters who could score almost at will.

Racking up a season's total of 1517 points to their opponents' 1208, the Senecas averaged 76 points per game with 60 scored against them.

This year's 17 wins and 3 losses is the record for the future Calvert teams to beat.

Seneca Cagers

Among the greatest of the great belongs Bill Rohrbach 6'6". A three year letterman, most valuable player in his junior and senior years, 1st team all-tournament, and 1st team All-Ohio are the honors Bill has earned.

In Bob Amlin Calvert loses an "All' around good sport. His four years of hard work make him one to be remembered, not so much as a basketball flash, but as a spark for the team.

Dick Sullivan 6' was elected Captain by his teammates. His 253 points made him second high scorer on the team. Dick was voted on the all tourney 1st team and was second highest in the tournament with 59 points.

Denny Bridinger 6'1" was one of the most spirited men on the squad. His great ability to rebound helped to control the backboard; he will be a hard man to replace next year.

1953-1954 Alumni News

ANNUAL REUNION

The Calvert Alumni Reunion, held each year on the first Sunday after graduation, was attended in 1953 by many of the Calvert graduates and their families. One of the main attractions of the day was the inspection of the almost-completed new building. The children received balloons and entertained themselves on the platform swings and in the convent garden.

Officers of the association represented the Alumni at a High Mass in the Ursuline Chapel on Sunday morning. The Mass was said for the living and the deceased members of the Alumni Association. The Rev. James Scott, '33, assisted by the Rev. Russell Gillig, '28, of Van Wert, presided at Benediction at 2 p. m. James Goetz, '47, played the organ.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Alumni officers elected at the annual reunion were: Howard Magers, Jr., president; Anna Mae Reiter, vice president; James Goetz, treasurer; Kathryn Sacksteder, secretary.

ALUMNI ACTIVITIES

Through the service of Boles Dandurand Studio, identification of all class pictures which was started last year, has now been completed. The pictures have been rearranged and hung in the study hall.

The constitution, which has been in effect since the Alumni Association was first started, has been revised to incorporate a more modern version.

To keep closer contact with all almuni a new file system has been inaugurated.

At the close of the year the association is planning to make a contribution to the library fund.

SUMMER DANCE

Bob Montgomery and his orchestra provided the music for over 500 Alumni and their guests at the traditional Summer Dance at Meadowbrook Ballroom, Bascom, Sept. 4.

To establish a precedent, future Alumni dances will be held on the Friday before Labor Day.
